The President, we hear, has been somewhat of an invalid for some days past. On the day before yesterday, he is said to have been bled, and yesterday was not well enough to permit him to receive the usual avalanche of visitors of the day.

To-lay, the public will be gratified to learn. the President's health is so far restored as that he is engaged in his usual energetic transaction of business.

cific, is still engaged taking testimony in that case, and will probably be occupied therewith for several days yet .- Star of yesterday afternoon.
